

Making a difference:

Sharing Your Early Years Research

Save the date: Saturday, 9th November 2013
10.30am - 3.30pm Rowan Williams Court, Medway Campus
(lunch and refreshments included)

Canterbury Christ Church University invites staff, students, early years practitioners and teachers to this exciting event at our Medway Campus to:

- Celebrate and share some of the research undertaken by students from across the Department of Childhood Studies including the New Leaders in Early Years;
- Explore ways of disseminating student-led research more widely;
- Foster and develop a community of early years practice.

Guest speakers include Graham Birrell (Founder and editor of CCCU's ConsiderED blog) and Professor Andrew Lambirth (University of Greenwich)

Contact Us

If you are interested in presenting your research, please contact nicola.kemp@canterbury.ac.uk
To book a place please email: makingadifference@canterbury.ac.uk

Places are limited. Please note that although this is a free event, a £10 fee will be charged in the event of non-attendance to cover costs.