Making a difference

Transforming early years practice

Thursday, 9th May 2013

Seminar 5pm - 6.30pm

Room RWs42, Rowan Williams Court, Medway Campus

Deborah Bell (BA Early Years Leadership with EYPS, Yr 3 Undergraduate)
Physical Development of Young Children – Deborah is going to share her interesting work in her setting regarding the physical development of very young children. This will be complimented by:-

Patricia Taylor (MA Student)

Action research on PE and young children – is it really valued?

This student showcase will be introduced by Anita Cooper (PhD Student) who will pose the question – To be or not to be a graduate professional? What difference does a degree make to those working in the Early Years Sector?

Come along and join in the debate!

The Importance of the Student Voice: A Celebration of Early Years Action Research

Following on from the success of the 'Making a Difference' conference where students from across Childhood Studies programmes delivered workshop sessions, a series of student-led seminars is being organised at Medway. These will provide a friendly, informal opportunity for students from different programmes to meet and to share research and practice.

Everyone is invited! No need to book, just turn up!

FORTHCOMING SHOWCASES
